

Brigitta

(Helmut Huber)

Brigitta, you're like a fairy - There's magic in your eyes
Your smiling enchants me, babe - I will lose my mind
Perhaps you're a bad magician in a sweet disguise
I cannot see danger, 'cause you've made me blind

You're on the other side of the abyss and you're calling
But your sweet voice is a deception - Now I'm falling

You're like Lorelei, who bewitches sailors with her singing
So they don't take care of the rocks -
Their ships are dashed and all are drowned
And to the deeps of the river, their dead bodies are sinking
Everyone, who hears her singing disappears and will never be found

You're on the other side of a deep abyss and you're calling
But your sweet voice is a deception - Now I'm falling

Listen, oh listen boy
The story of a girl, who has got the certain smile
You are lost, you are lost in a maze
And you think that it's worthwhile
To risk all, what you build up
All what you build up in a lotta years before
For one night of sin with her
Do you really think she can give you even more ?

She loves you
She needs you
She trusts you

(Guitar Solo)

Brigitta, you are in my mind, when the moon shines so bright
You are in my thoughts and I don't know, don't know why
You are in my dreams, when I'm closing my eyes in the night
But it is an illusion - Drunk of love I will die

You're on the other side of a deep abyss and you're calling
But your sweet voice is a deception - Now see me falling

You're on the other side ...
