

How I feel

Text by Karin Beck

Music by Karin Beck & Helmut Huber (Arrangement)

I'm sitting in a cold dark hole
Watching in my soul
It's terrible what I see
I take my heart, throw it away
But though it hurts day by day
I pack my packs and flee

The last years I remember well
I had no reason to search your spell
But suddenly it happened
I don't know what's the reason why
Don't know what I haven't tried
Don't hope that it's the end

Without my body I feel fine
Without my heart I would be blind
Don't understand, I take my hand and flee ...

You ask me how I feel today
I'm lonely but it's my own way
To change my life
I clear my heart from my depression
Cry a night and feel the passion
I'm really a strong life

I feel the sense to taste your body
The sense get stronger that's bloody
I want to hold you now
And don't know how I feel
I tell you that my love is real
But you should tell me: HOW ???

Without my body I feel fine
Without my heart I would be blind
Don't understand, I take my hand and flee ...
