

Chiara

(Helmut Huber)

You' re so many miles away
But I feel you near
When I'm closing my eyes
It's your voice I hear

You gave me warmth and safety
With your pleasant style
Inside you made me glad
With your sweet smile

There will always be
A place for you in my heart
Chiara,
Why we're thousand miles apart
I don't forget you girl
There's a dream, I share with you
Chiara, I guess
This dream cannot come true

Why didn't we have more time
There's so much left to say
How often I think of you
I miss you every day

Don't know what future brings
But sometime till eternity
Maybe there is a time
That's right for you and me

There will always be
A place for you in my heart
Chiara,
Why we're thousand miles apart
I don't forget you girl
There 's a dream, I share with you
Oh Chiara, why
This dream cannot come true

There will always be ...
